

What are you looking for in a church?

If you are looking for this...then Copper Hill Church might not work for you.

A big church

A place where children and their noise are viewed as a problem

A spectator experience

A completely modern church

Little chance to volunteer

Sermons you can snooze through

A church with no plans

But if you are looking for this... then Copper Hill Church would be a great choice!

A church family where you'll be welcomed and missed

A church where children are loved and the main service programming includes them

A participatory interactive atmosphere

A church with deep New England roots, with a vigorous Christian history, and a rich and varied worship tradition

A place where you can easily find your part in the ministries

Interesting, relevant Bible-based messages

A church with the vision to improve and grow and minister to its community
